

GALIANO ISLAND RECYCLING RESOURCES

Policy # 1 – CODE OF CONDUCT FOR BOARD MEMBERS

Board members will:

- Represent the best interests of the members of the organization over and above personal and professional interests
- Respect confidentiality of information received in the course of Board meetings and activities
- Declare potential conflict of interest and refrain from discussion and voting when applicable
- Give recognition to others who contribute to the success of the organization and its activities
- Not speak on behalf of the association unless designated by the Chair of the Board as a whole
- Adopt clear, documented processes and equal access to information
- Not use their individual authority when dealing on an individual basis with staff or volunteers
- Ensure there are competitive opportunities when services of contractors or employment opportunities arise
- Treat staff and fellow Board members with respect and listen to their points of view
- Participate in Board meetings and keep informed about developments and issues relevant to Board operations

Failure to abide by the Code of Conduct may result in removal from the Board.

I have read this Code of Conduct and agree to abide by it.
